PORTRAIT OF THE ARTIST AS A TEENAGER

At the bottom of the bottom of my closet, I discovered an abandoned portfolio of my old high school paintings and drawings.

They were preserved by my doty doting mother for posterity.

Dated from 1949, when I was a 17 year old senior at Mckeesport High School, I would paint all Summer hoping to submit them to the Scholastic Exhibit in Pittsburgh and perhaps win a scholarship.

To no avail.

Now they proved to be my madeleine and remind me of my adolescent ambitions that have been realized but not quite in the way I had imagined.

Ars longa, vita brevis.
