

C.L.E.A.N.

It had been six years since Reverend Wright had been elected president of the United States. No one had been surprised by the large majority that the Christian League for Education and Neutralization candidate had elected. Considering the ecological disaster and economic calamities that had taken place in the late nineteen eighties, there was a fundamental need for stability in the country. C.L.E.A.N. immediatly made good its platform promises.

The women's rights movement was effectively destroyed by the new marriage laws. The unpopular homosexuals were rounded up by the Jesus Love Squads and finally vanished. No one complained but a few jews. Creationism was the official science taught in all schools. Evil rock music was banned from the air when Pat Boone became the country's music chaplain. All abortions were a capital offense. The country began to arm for a defense crusade against athiestic Russia. God's will had come to America.

CHRIST IN NEW YORK

Christ is sold on television
by a religious hypocrite.

Christ cries when he sees a young woman who was killed during an illegal abortion

Christ is beaten defending a homosexual.

Christ eats dog food with an old
Ukranian lady in Brooklyn.

Christ sees a woman being attacked.

Christ is killed by a mugger with a handgun.

The second coming had occurred and no one noticed.

SALVATION

THE UNFORTUNATE MAN could not touch the one he loved. It had been declared illegal by the law. Slowly his fingers became toes and his hands gradually became feet. He began to wear shoes on his hands to disguise his pain.

It never occurred to him to break the law.
