

A K A C H O O O F C O L O R

When you say a banana is yellow, is your yellow
the same as my yellow,
or is my yellow
your blue,
or is my blue
your purple?

Do we see the same
orange or is my orange
your green?

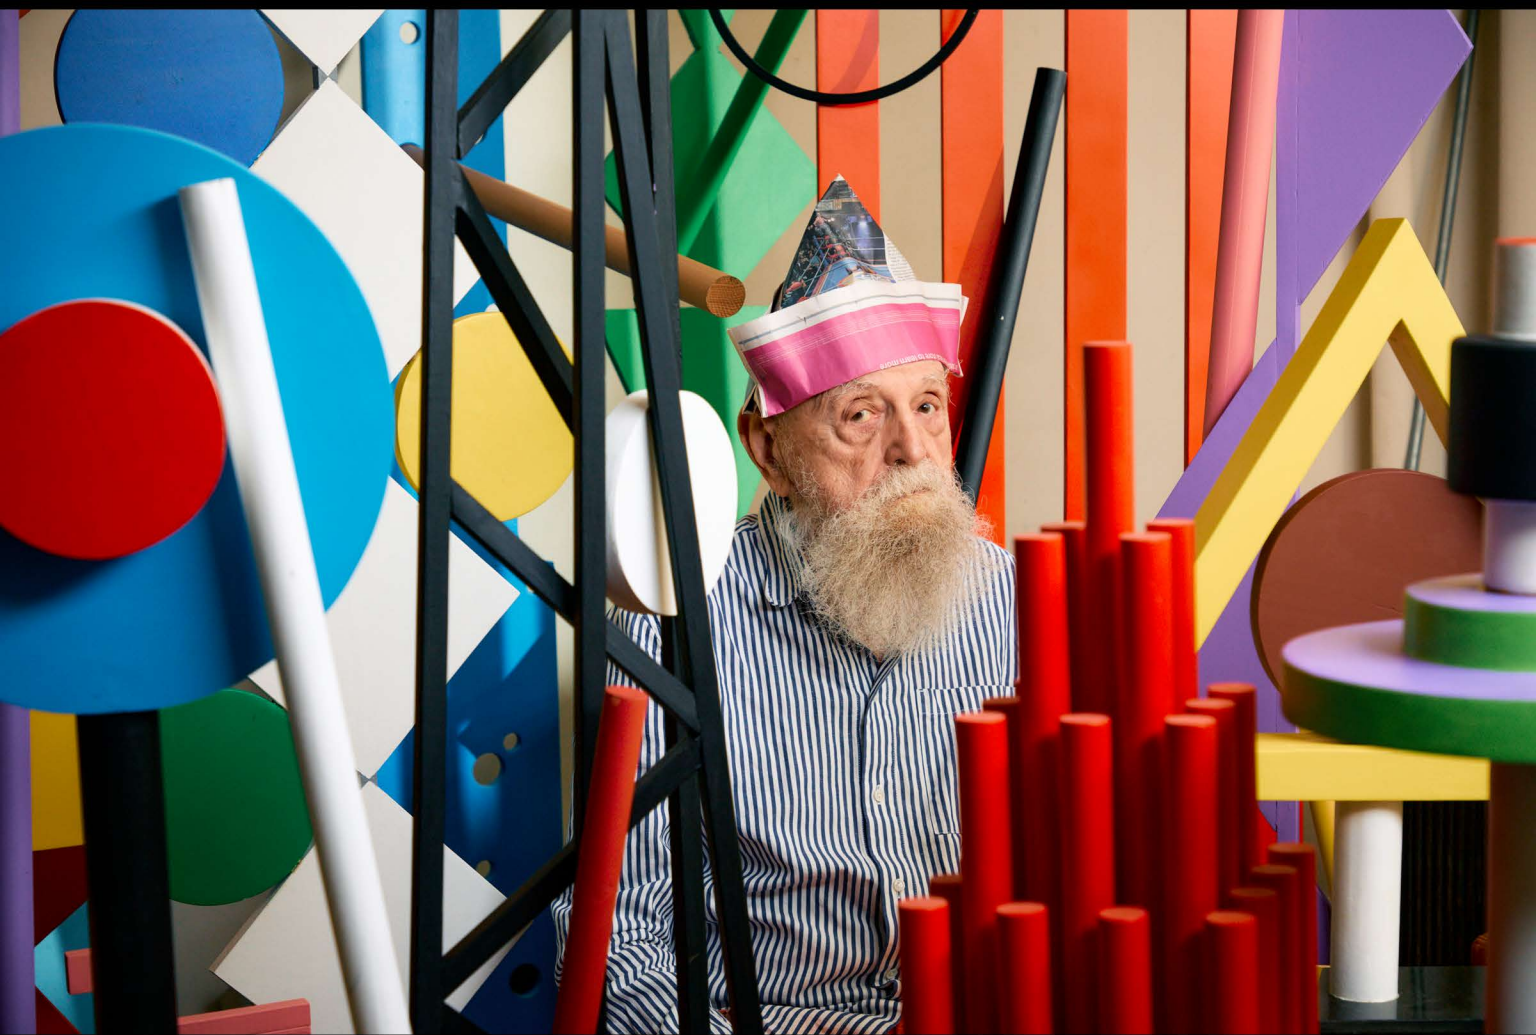

If we could hear a
rainbow,
would it sound
like Vivaldi's
Four Season's?

Ist dein blau
mine grün,
oder ist mine grün
dein
blau?

PATTYCAKE, PATTYCAKE,
BAKER'S MAN,
BAKE ME A RAINBOW
IF YOU CAN

Orange snores when it sleeps.
Dead silence is in mourning
A yellow grape is an imposter

Moonlight is so dark you could cut it with a knife.
Purple sounds inside out.

Silence is empty,
hollow like an echo.
Suddenly a punctuation
of yellow dots
that casts no shadows.

Did you hear that?

It sounded like
white to me.
